Estimate of Outstanding Ballots Left to be Processed

LOS ANGELES – Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced the estimate of outstanding ballots to be processed in the Presidential General Election.

The estimated number of outstanding ballots to be counted is now 33,045. This estimate has been adjusted based on valid Vote by Mail ballots received in the mail by November 20 and the estimated number of ballots returned at Vote Centers and Official Drop Boxes on Election Day.

This estimate includes Vote by Mail ballots, Conditional Voter Registration ballots, and Provisional ballots. See estimates below:

- Vote by Mail ballots: 20,950
- Conditional Voter Registration ballots: 7,585
- Provisional ballots*: 365
- Misc. ballots: 4,145

All outstanding ballots are verified before being tallied. These numbers will adjust throughout the Official Canvass Period as we process and tally ballots.

The election results are scheduled to be certified on Monday, November 30.

The mission of the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is to serve Los Angeles County by providing essential records management and election services in a fair, accessible and transparent manner.
