The Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk Now Accepting Appointments for Valentine's Day Weddings

The Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced today that appointments for wedding ceremonies are available for Valentine's Day on Thursday, Feb. 14, 2013.

"This is the first year we are accepting appointments on Valentine's Day. We implemented this system to accommodate the demand; we have seen significant interest in this special day," said Logan. "In addition to accepting appointments, we are offering ceremonies at all six branches across Los Angeles."

To make an appointment for a wedding ceremony, couples need to fill out an online marriage license application (click here) and bring the confirmation page into one of the six RR/CC branch offices, along with $90 for a public license fee. Couples can then make an appointment for a marriage ceremony. Payment of a $25 ceremony fee is required to confirm an appointment.

A branch office directory and a step-by-step guide to getting married on Valentine's Day can be found at https://www.lavote.net/VDAY_2013.cfm.
