RRCC Hosts National Voter Registration Day at USC

What: In California, more than 6.6 million citizens are eligible but not registered to vote. This event will be held to help ensure no one is left out. The campus-wide voter registration drive will be held on National Voter Registration Day on the USC University Park Campus to highlight the importance of voting as a means of civic engagement.

Students — and anyone on campus — will have the opportunity to register to vote, listen to a roster of important speakers and gather information about civic engagement from the event partners.

This event is hosted by the LA County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk, USC Jesse M. Unruh Institute of Politics in partnership with the Korean American Coalition, Asian Americans Advancing Justice, Undergraduate Student Government, Political Student Assembly, USC College Democrats, USC College Republicans, Asian Pacific American Student Assembly, Latino Student Assembly, CALPIRG, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, and the USC Program Board.

When: Tuesday, September 22, 2015, from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. - Speaking engagement from Noon-1 p.m.

Where: USC University Park Campus, Hahn Plaza, 3551 Trousdale Pkwy, Los Angeles

Who: Dean Logan, Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk, Secretary of State Alex Padilla, Dan Schnur, Director of the USC Jesse M. Unruh Institute of Politics, Dean Florez, Former California State Senator from the 16th District (2002-2010) and current Unruh Institute Legislator in Residence and Rini Sampath, President, USC Undergraduate Student Government.

Media RSVP required.

The mission of the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is to serve Los Angeles County by providing essential records management and election services in a fair, accessible and transparent manner. For more information, visit www.lavote.net.
