Los Angeles-Based National Voter Registration Day Coalition Announces Events

The Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) will coordinate events in the county to celebrate National Voter Registration Day (NVRD), which is on Sept. 24.

Organizations leading the effort include the National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials Educational Fund, Rock the Vote, League of Women Voters of Los Angeles, California Common Cause, Community Corporation of Santa Monica, and California State University, Los Angeles Associated Students, Inc.

Events around Los Angeles County include:

Saturday, Sept. 21 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

California State University, Los Angeles
Housing Phase 2
5300 Paseo Rancho Castilla
Los Angeles, CA 90032

Monday, Sept. 23 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

California State University, Northridge
Matador Walk
18111 Nordhoff St.
Northridge, CA 91330

Those unable to attend these events can also register to vote at www.lavote.net.

About National Voter Registration Day

As a non-partisan unofficial national holiday, National Voter Registration Day counts on partners across the political spectrum. Started in 2012 for the presidential election, National Voter Registration Day is designed to create an annual moment when the entire nation focuses on registering Americans to exercise their most basic right—the right to vote.
