17,718 LA County Voters Cast Ballot During Second Weekend of Early Voting

LOS ANGELES – Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) Dean C. Logan announced a total of 17,718 ballots were cast in the second weekend of Early Voting in LA County.

The first weekend saw 7,756 early voters whereas the second weekend's attendance spiked to over 17,718 voters. The total number of early votes for both weekends was 25,474.

"The response to weekend early voting was overwhelming and signals the likelihood of very robust turnout at the polls on Tuesday," said Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk Dean Logan. "While this is positive in many respects, the limitations of our dated voting system and the limited number of locations also show the need to move forward with plans to expand voting options in the future and to offer a more modernized voting experience. Voters who showed up this weekend were enthusiastic and understanding. We thank them for their patience and perseverance."

Of the five additional locations the highest turnout was in Culver City with 4,794 total votes cast.
