L.A. County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk Needs Bilingual Speakers to Assist in Upcoming Elections

The Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk (RR/CC) is seeking bilingual individuals who speak proficient English and one of the following languages: Bengali, Farsi, Gujarati, Japanese, Khmer, Korean, or Vietnamese. Bilingual assistants will help staff the Department's language assistance programs for the upcoming election season.

Job duties for the temporary election assistant positions will include translating election materials or being at polling places on Election Day to assist voters.

Individuals are encouraged to help their community in the elections process. Election assistants can earn up to $19.18 per hour for their language services.

Applications for Election Assistant I and II positions can be found here. (Please indicate your language skills on the application.) For more information, please call (562) 462-2293 or (562) 462-2285.

The mission of the Registrar-Recorder/County Clerk is to serve Los Angeles County by providing essential records management and election services in a fair, accessible and transparent manner. For more information, visit www.lavote.net.
